

It's Not Your Typical Museum Store!

Over the past several months, the Remick Museum Store has expanded its inventory, and presently carries a unique assortment of American made gifts, historic toys, snacks, candy, maple syrup, honey, house wares, Henderson Pottery, Connor Prairie Pottery, stuffed animals, books, beeswax candles, Kleen Kanteen water bottles, and Remick Museum t-shirts, baseball caps, and recycled cotton tote bags. Here are some samples of what the Museum Store is currently carrying.

100% beeswax candles, available in 10 inch and 6 inch size, are hand-poured by Remick Museum staff and volunteer, Isabelle Pormealeu. 6" are $3 each, or $5.50 per pair. 10" are $4 each, or $7.50 per pair.

Friends of Remick Museum receive a 10% discount for purchases in the Museum Store:
6" are $2.70 each, or $4.95 per pair.
10" are $3.60 each, or $6.75 per pair.

My Little Farm Play Set is just one of the many contemporary and traditional toys available in the Store. $19; Friends price $17.10.

Dorothy Timberlake Candies are simple and old-fashioned. In 1971, Dorothy and her husband began experimenting with a variety of unique barley candy products. Today, every single barley candy lollipop is still hand crafted one at a time. They are cooked in small batches, poured precisely into the desired shapes, cooled on marble, carefully filed to remove any sharp edges, then individually wrapped and labeled. Lollipops are $1.75; Friends price is $1.57.

All cotton Remick Museum T-shirts come in youth and adult sizes:

Youth are $15; Friends price is $13.50.

Adult sizes are $17; Friends price is $15.30.

Remick Museum Hats are $15; Friends price $13.50.
